

Announcement of the Loei Provincial Industry Office

Subject: Refraining from Accepting Any Gifts or Gratuities of All kinds for
The Performance Duties (No Gift Policy) for the Fiscal Year B.E. 2569 (2026)

.....

The Loei Provincial Industry Office, is committed to upholding the highest ethical standards and supporting on operations following the Thai government's policies and the National Reformation Plan on anti-corruption and misconduct by taking part in enhancing an honest culture and values in working morally, ethically, and transparently, without seeking personal benefits from performing duties while preventing corruption. This is to enhance the image of Thailand

Therefore, to express the intention and commitment to enhance an honest culture and values in performing official duties with legitimacy, transparency, fairness, and a volunteer spirit, prioritizing public interest over personal gain the Loei Provincial Industry Office, hereby announces the policy to ensure that the office Shall be an organization where all authorities including executives, government officials, employees, refrain from accepting any gifts of all kinds, whether it be before, during, or after the performance of official duties that may lead to corruption and misconduct, either now or in the future. Exceptions are made in the case of accepting properties or benefits that comply with laws, rules, or regulations issued by virtue of the provisions of the laws as well as ethically accepting those that align with criteria and amounts specified by the National Anti-Corruption Commission of Thailand. Furthermore, the authorities shall not seek illegal gifts or benefits and are responsible for making the stated policy widely known to outsiders.

Please Kindly be informed and strictly adhere to.

Announced on 12 June B.E. 2569 (2026)

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Supattra'.

(Mrs. Supattra Khongma)

Industrial Technical, Officer, Senior Professional Level.
Acting, Loei Provincial Industrial Officer